“ABOUT US”

Crypto Market

The crypto market is a digital marketplace where cryptocurrencies, such as Bitcoin, Ethereum, and many others, are traded. Cryptocurrencies are decentralized digital assets that use blockchain technology to secure transactions and control the creation of new units. Unlike traditional currencies, cryptocurrencies operate independently of central banks or governments.

Forex Market

The Forex market (foreign exchange market) is a global marketplace where currencies are traded. It's the largest and most liquid financial market in the world, with an average daily trading volume of over $6 trillion. The forex market operates 24 hours a day, five days a week, allowing traders from all over the world to buy and sell currencies.

HOW DOES TRADING WORK ?

Trading involves buying and selling currencies on the foreign exchange market with the aim of making a profit from fluctuations in exchange rates. Here's how it works:

Buying and Selling:

Buy (Long Position): When you believe the price of an asset will increase, you buy it. If the price goes up, you can sell it at a higher price and profit from the difference.
Sell (Short Position): When you expect the price of an asset to fall, you can sell it first (by borrowing the asset) and then buy it back later at a lower price, keeping the difference as profit.

Risk Management

Successful traders use risk management techniques to protect their capital. This includes setting stop-loss orders, not risking too much on a single trade, and diversifying their investments.

Profit and Loss

The profit or loss in trading depends on the difference between the buying price and the selling price. If the asset's value increases and you sell it at a higher price, you make a profit. If it decreases, you incur a loss.
